

Welcome

We hope worship today will engage your mind, stir your soul, and touch your heart, preparing us to faithfully serve God in the world.

A special welcome goes to all worship guests — we are honored by your presence. We invite you to participate fully in worship, our program, and common life of our congregation, and hope you will feel at home among us. Please visit the hospitality booth to receive a special gift. If you have any questions about our church, please speak with a pastor or elder.

After the 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. services, join us for coffee in the fellowship hall courtyard.

Ushers are available for assistance this morning. Large-print bulletins are on-hand — just ask an usher. For worshippers who struggle with their hearing, we have a hearing loop installed in the floor of the sanctuary. To receive the loop signal manually, activate your T-coil or the telephone setting on your hearing aid or cochlear implant. If you are unsure, please consult your audiologist. If you don't wear hearing aids, but need assistance, please ask an usher for a loop receiver.

Please know, if you need to step out of the sanctuary for any reason, you can watch the service on livestream in the hospitality suite. Also if you can't make it to church, you can watch the 11:00 a.m. service live on our website - or later during the week at your convenience.

• Children Are Welcome

We believe that worship is the response of the whole people of God, and that includes children! Families are welcome to sit together throughout the worship service. If you are interested, child care for newborns up to five years old is provided by a trained, caring staff each week in the nursery behind the sanctuary.

Parents, ask an usher for a worship bag for your children so they can engage in creative activities while remaining in worship.

Waking Up to Race
Sundays, January 20 and 27

Mark as a First Century Sermon
Sundays, January 20 and 27,
February 3, 17 and 24 (No Class February 10)
10:00 a.m. in Room 203

Dr. Maurice Luker takes us, once again, deeper into the gospel of Mark - this time as an understanding of the text as a first century sermon. When the writer of the text commences with the words, "The beginning of the good news," it is obvious that he is writing about something which is more than interesting. It is news that he thinks will benefit people and from which he has benefited. Mark is speaking about "good news" and tells us how it all began. This class will delve a little into the original Greek text! You will experience Mark as the earliest hearers of the gospel message did.

• New Member Class
